Official Rules and Judging Criteria

9. Meet with a Business Advisor – Each applicant must meet at least once with a business advisor during the Competition. Advisors are Naperville Public Library Business Services Team members or a NaperLaunch Mentor.
10. Judging Criteria – Applicants are responsible to read and become familiar with the Official Rules and Judging Criteria and Elements of a Business Plan template.
11. Ineligibility – Employees or their family members from The Naperville Public Library are not eligible to enter NaperLaunch BPPC 2019 either individually or as any part of a team.
12. Finalists – Finalists will be asked to provide their 2018 tax return and proof of residency.
13. Disbursement of Funds – Prize money will be awarded to each winner following the end of the competition. The winning NaperLaunch BPPC 2019 entrant or team will have sole responsibility for deciding how to allocate or otherwise use its prize proceeds.

Please note that the awards are taxable and that The Naperville Public Library must have each winner's Social Security number before a check can be issued.
14. All decisions of the judges are final.
15. Confidentiality – By the submission of a Business Plan, entrants understand and agree that a short description of the Business Plan will be considered a “public summary” of the plan and may be used in public documentation related to the competition. The Library will provide a copy of business plans to competition staff and judges, and will inform them that no additional copies are to be made.
16. Judging Criteria – See next page.
